Lamar Perry's Story

Lamar Perry and his wife Lakeva purchased a home through UHI last year using the city and county's Helping Homebuyer down payment assistance and homebuyer education with UHI. The couple was able to choose a house in a safe neighborhood with good neighbors and excellent schools. This little bit of extra purchasing power went a long way in serving a homebuyer that is already giving back to the community, through his work with Mid-South Food Bank.

“We did it for our kids because we want our kids to grow up in a safe neighborhood.” —Lamar Perry
